

Charlie Zahm with Tad Marks & Cheryl Prashker

Charlie Zahm is one of the most popular soloists at Celtic music festivals, Maritime and Early American music events anywhere east of the Mississippi. With a baritone voice some have described as "coming along once in a generation," Charlie has become one of the most successful performers on the Celtic festival circuit, weaving magical moments of Scottish and Irish history for the listener and viewer, with passion for the performance and a chosen repertoire pleasing to all members of the family.

Keenly aware of his own heritage, which includes healthy doses of Scottish and Irish blood on both sides of his family, Charlie has collected several hundred popular (as well as beautiful and obscure) selections and performs them for thousands of fans up and down the Eastern Seaboard and across America.

Today, as one of the most sought-after Celtic singers on the East Coast (he is one of the few singers in the world to be invited to sing live with Scotland's "Black Watch"), Charlie performs regularly everywhere from concerts and festivals to television shows where his 6'4" frame and powerful baritone make him one of the most memorable performers around.

Charlie has released more than two dozen CDs and DVDs. For more info, see: <http://www.facebook.com/1/60fe2;www.charliezahm.com>

Charlie will be joined by fantastic Baltimore fiddler Tad Marks. Tad has toured extensively across the U.S. and Europe with top-name groups and is considered one of the finest fiddlers on the East Coast. Joining Charlie and Tad will be Canadian percussionist Cheryl Prashker who will also be performing with the group RUNA at the festival.
